

July 1, 2016. Piła City President Piotr Głowski and the mayor of the Italian city of Imola signed a partnership agreement. Imola is located in the Emilia-Romagna region, in the province of Bologna on the Santerno River. The city has preserved the ruins of a forum and is also known for its Formula 1 track Autodromo Enzo e Dino Ferrari.

In 2015, a statue of Wojtek the bear, who traveled with the 22nd Artillery Supply Company in the 2nd Polish Corps commanded by General Anders during World War II, was unveiled in the city.
